PRESS RELEASE

OUT OF THE BLUE, Capsis Elite Resort

is awarded as the Best Hotel for Children in Europe at the “2019 Prix Villégiature”

In a luxurious award ceremony that was organized once more at the majestic Château de Ferrières in central France, the 2019 Prix Villégiature awarded OUT OF THE BLUE, Capsis Elite Resort as the Best Hotel for Children in Europe. The fantastic evening that surrounded the awards was filled with discussions about the latest developments in the hospitality industry, as well as introductions and reunions between colleagues from all over the world. The event was accompanied with delightful cuisine and drinks prepared by the awards partner Château de Ferrières, and supported by the Maison de Champagne Ruinart.

It is an honour to have been awarded as the Best Hotel for Children in Europe and a significant recognition of how important young guests are to the resort, and the team's continuous effort to provide exciting experiences and innovative activities is recognized once more. From the Minoan themed Amusement Club, to the escape rooms, open air adventure playground, and dedicated Kids' water paradise, the commitment of the resort to create an environment where children can thrive is evident.

The unique 4000sqm Capsis Minoan Amusement Club offers games and activities based on Greek myths, and is influenced by the Ancient Minoan Palace sites of Malia, Phaistos and Knossos. It introduces children to the world of Greek Mythology, by combining fun and education with interactive games. Some of the available activities at the Club are pottery, giant board games, arts and crafts, a recycled craft station, dinosaur-themed games and crafts, our "Little Explorers" series and a role playing corner. It is ideal for children aged 4-11, and access is complimentary. The Club is also equipped with crèche facilities run by a team of fully qualified, professionally trained childcare staff.

The Teenagers' Club aims to socialize children and allow them to make new friends from all over the world and enjoy exciting activities. These include challenging treasure hunts, overnight group camping, exciting parties and gripping escape rooms, providing many opportunities to sharpen their imagination, creative thinking and social skills.
